

Hats off to students and staff at St. Anthony Elementary School who participated in a community-based initiative where several students made over 70 caps for premature babies at Lakeshore General Hospital.

All the students involved in the project are participants in the